

ALUMNI BRIEFS

Stuart Salsbury '71 and Dean Gifford at the UMAB Reception on November 28, 1995.

30s

1938: Bernard S. Meyer is heading a project of the Judiciary Committee of the Senior Lawyers Division of the ABA to study the statutes of the 50 state constitutions and the rules and case law of the 50 states relating to the retirement of judges and service after retirement by retired judges.

40s

1940: Calvert Thomas, chair of Thomas Cadillac, Inc. of Hartford, Conn., has acquired a Jaguar franchise with new facilities at a new location. His two sons hold the positions of president and vice president/general manager. He is now doing business as Thomas Cadillac Jaguar.

1945: Elroy G. Boyer retired as Circuit Court Judge.

50s

1956: Edward O. Clarke, Jr. was named chair of the Maryland Higher Education Commission in November 1995.

1957: John J. Dempsey joined the firm of McCormick, Paulding & Huber of Hartford, Conn. as counsel-at-law in August 1995.

1959: Stewart Deutsch is appellate counsel in the Office of the Appellate Counsel Immigration and Naturalization Service, U.S. Dept. of Justice. He resides in Falls Church, Va.

60s

1960: Thomas I. McKnew was appointed by California Governor Pete Wilson to the Los Angeles County Superior Court on April 27, 1995. Louis A. Reinhardt, Jr. retired as assistant commissioner of consumer credit for the State of Maryland. David B. Rudow, managing member of the law firm of Adelberg, Rudow, Dorf, Hendler & Sameth, LLC, discussed current corporate tax developments at the 26th annual Chesapeake Tax Conference on September 28, 1995.

1962: James B. Carson has taken of counsel position with the firm of Carson & Jones-Bateman effective September 1, 1995 and plans to spend at least half his time at his home in Florida.

1963: William H. Price, II, senior partner with Henry & Price, Easton, Md. has been elected a fellow of the Maryland Bar Foundation. Mark Z. Segal has joined Fox, Rothschild, O'Brien & Frankel as a partner in the Lawrenceville, N.J. office. He practices primarily in the area of general litigation with particular emphasis on domestic relations and family-related matters. Seymour B. Stern is a principal at Stern & Kresseir, P.A. in Frederick, Md.

1966: Stanley D. Abrams is a member of the faculty of ALI/ABA Land Use Institute and is co-authoring Handling The Land Use Case Second Edition to be published by Clark Boardman (Spring 1996).

1967: James R. Eyler was appointed to the Court of Special Appeals of Maryland on January 9, 1996. Judge Eyler was formerly managing partner with Miles and Stockbridge. William N. White has been nominated and accepted in Who's Who in American Law 1992-1995.

1968: Aaron C. Kadish was elected chair of the Bar Association's Insurance Trust. Paul Krieger is an adjunct professor at the University of Houston School of Law. He teaches Trademark and Unfair Comp. Law, Trade Secret Law and hosted the January 1996 Houston alumni reception.

70s

1970: James M. Fountain merged the practice of the firm Fountain Rhoades with Dunn, Carney, Allan, Higgins and Tongue in Portland, Ore. Alan S. Langer is senior counsel at JC Penney Company, Inc.

Allan H. Terl was elected to an at-large seat on the ACLU National Board of Directors in September 1995. Former president of the Broward County Chapter of the ACLU, Allan served as vice president of the ACLU of Florida and served from 1993 until earlier this year as the Florida ACLU's national board representative. He is believed to be the first at-large national board member from Florida. He is also the first open gay or lesbian to be elected to an at-large national board seat without having first served on the ACLU staff. He has received numerous awards and is involved extensively in lesbian/gay rights and HIV/AIDS issues.

1971: Mary Elizabeth Kurz was appointed to the Board of Directors of Maywood College Alumni Association in September 1995 after ending a two-year term in the House of Delegates of the ABA in June 1995. John C. Nason serves as counsel to the Downtown Salisbury Association in Salisbury, Md.

1972: Russell D. Karpook is the owner of "The Red Star" restaurant, 906 S. Wolfe Street, in Fells Point, Baltimore.

1974: Marc G. Rasinsky has been appointed to fill a vacant seat on Carroll County's District Court. Dan Twomey was appointed manager of business development for federal operations by Sequent Computer Systems of McLean. Bernard Williams is now retired from the practice of law.

UMAB Reception Honors Donors

On November 28, 1995, Dr. David A. Ramsay, president of UMAB, hosted the annual UMAB reception for individuals contributing $1,000 or more to any school or program on the campus. The School of Law was well-represented at the reception, held at the Centre Club in downtown Baltimore.

1975: Merle Ann Beck Achinstein traveled to Paris and Provence in September 1995 with the Wellesley College Alumni Association. Since her days as an art history major in college, she has looked forward to visiting these two centers of French painting. Michael J. Cifrino, in August 1995, was named the Ballistic Missile Defense Organization's general counsel. He and his wife, Peggy, who works for Gen. Colin Powell, live in Arlington, Va., and have two daughters, Megan, age 9, and Reid, age 6. Alvin B. Krongard, chair and chief executive officer of Alex. Brown, Inc., was recently named chair of the Securities Industry Association at the trade group's annual meeting in Boca Raton, Fla.

1976: Margaret Lee Norton, after 10 years' service as principal counsel to the Maryland State Treasurer and Board of Public Works, joined Eastwick Rose & Wright, P.A. in Baltimore, Md. As a principal, she is concentrating in public financing, equipment and project finance, government procurement and administrative law, including public utilities.

1977: Victoria Smouse Berghel, formerly senior partner in Weinberg & Green, has assumed the leadership of its Real Estate Practice Group. Her practice focuses on retail and commercial leasing, shopping center development, real estate finance, residential land development and property and asset management. Kathleen Lynch married P. Douglas Powell on September 9, 1995. David W. Young was sworn in as a judge of the Circuit Court of Baltimore City, on January 26, 1996. Judge Young is an active member of the Monumental City Bar Association and has received awards from various civic organizations.

1978: Harriet E. Cooperman, chair of Weinberg & Green's Labor and Employment Law practice group, has been elected to its executive committee. She is the former chair of the Section of Labor and Employment Law of the MSBA, and was also the recent chair for the American Bar Association's Employer-Employee Relations Committee of the Tort and Insurance Practice Section. Andre M. Davis, on August 14, 1995, was appointed judge, United States District Court for the District of Maryland. William D. Missouri was elected in 1995 to serve as the chair of the Board of Visitors for Bowie State University in Maryland, and also serves as chair of the Catholic Youth Organization for the Archdiocese for the Washington area for 1996. Irving E. Walker presented oral arguments in the United States Supreme Court in October 1995, in the case of Citizens Bank of Maryland vs. Strumpf.

1979: Scott B. Baron received the 1995 People's Pro Bono Award presented by People's Pro Bono Action Center, Inc., the Statewide Clearinghouse & Coordinator of Volunteer Legal Services & the Maryland Bar Association Special Committee on Pro Bono Legal Services. Linda H. Lamone was appointed by the Court of Appeals in
CONTINUED ON PAGE 26

MLSC ANNUAL EVENT

On September 27, 1995

members of the Maryland Law

School Club (those contributing $1,000 or more annually) gathered at the Center Club for their annual event. Gary Williams, head coach for the University of Maryland men's basketball team, was the special guest and keynote speaker. Williams' witty sense of humor made for an entertaining and insightful look into division I college basketball and a memorable evening for everyone. John Isbister '77, chair of the 1995-96 Maryland Law School Club, had the pleasure of introducing Gary Williams.

Left to right: John Isbister '77, 1995-96 MLSC chair, Gary Williams, Dean Gifford and Graeme Bush '76, 1995-96 Law School Fund Board chair at the MLSC event.

Ruth Sobeloff Mayer with husband Victor Mayer and Dean Gifford.